Hey, what's up? Julie, what are we going to learn in your session?
- J Julie Skolnick 00:06
Oh, I'm really excited Seth, because we're gonna learn about gifted and 2e kids, or twice-exceptional kids, and why executive functioning is a thing. Everybody thinks that gifted means smart, and you can do everything, right? Well, you know what, executive functioning is not so simple. So we're going to learn about that 'why,' and we're gonna learn about ways to approach executive functioning with gift and 2e kids from a strength-based lens.
